> En sa qualité de juge au tribunal du district Pervomaïsky à Minsk, Anastassia Koulik est responsable d'un grand nombre de décisions prononcées contre des manifestants pacifiques pour des motifs politiques, notamment de la condamnation d'Aliaksandr Zakharevitch, qui est considéré comme un prisonnier politique par Viasna, une organisation biélorusse de défense des droits de l'homme. Elle est donc responsable de graves violations des droits de l'homme et de graves atteintes à l'état de droit, ainsi que de la répression de la société civile et de l'opposition démocratique.
