areas: accommodation, education, and many other things," the speaker noted.

It is important that children feel confident of their future, find themselves in life, choose a profession and be useful to society. The state spends Br1,500per child per month. “Not every country has such a social policy," Vladimir Andreichenko said and added that all members of parliament participate in the Our Children campaign and visit children's homes and orphanages.

Vladimir Andreichenko wished the children that everything on their wish list come true. “We are looking forward to the New Year with hope for a miracle. I would like the year 2021 to be a year of creation, unity, and peace,” he said and thanked the teachers for their work.

Sponsors presented the Begoml school with a treadmill, two tennis tables, a washing machine, a TV set and money certificates.

The Begoml Begoml auxiliary residential school was opened on 12 September 1960. In 1974, it was transformed into an auxiliary residential school.

The institution is open all year round. There are 96 pupils there, 19 of them are children with special needs. The children participate in district, regional and national competitions and contests, and win prizes.

The school has a gym, sewing and carpentry workshops, an agricultural room, a library, a computer lab, a medical center, a canteen, a social orientation room, an apartment room, social and psychological service rooms, a winter garden, and a laundry. There is also a pig farm, a year-round greenhouse, three hotbeds, and six hectares of farmland.
