She also shared the emotions that charged the meeting:

– “Time has chosen us!” – this is not only the slogan of the seventh All-Belarusian Assembly, but also a guide for each of us to action. By improving their political system, Belarusians are moving forward along the path of evolution, not revolution, and the All-Belarusian People’s Assembly is an insurance against ill-considered decisions. Unity and creation are the strength of our society, and we choose this path to strengthen the sovereignty and independence of our country.
