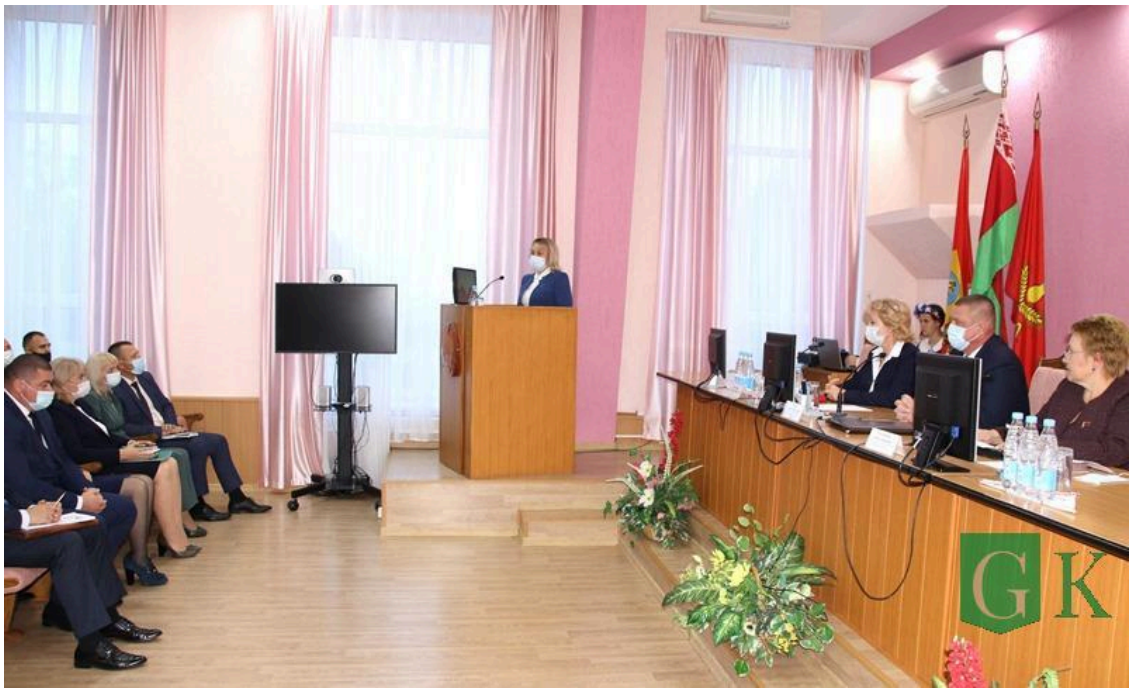
At the 29th extraordinary session of the district Council of Deputies, the candidacy of Alexandra Mikheenko for the post of chairman of the district executive committee was unanimously approved.

Alexandra Nikolaevna was introduced to the deputy corps, members of the district executive committee, heads of structural divisions of the district executive committee, district services and organizations by the Governor of the Mogilev region Leonid Zayats.

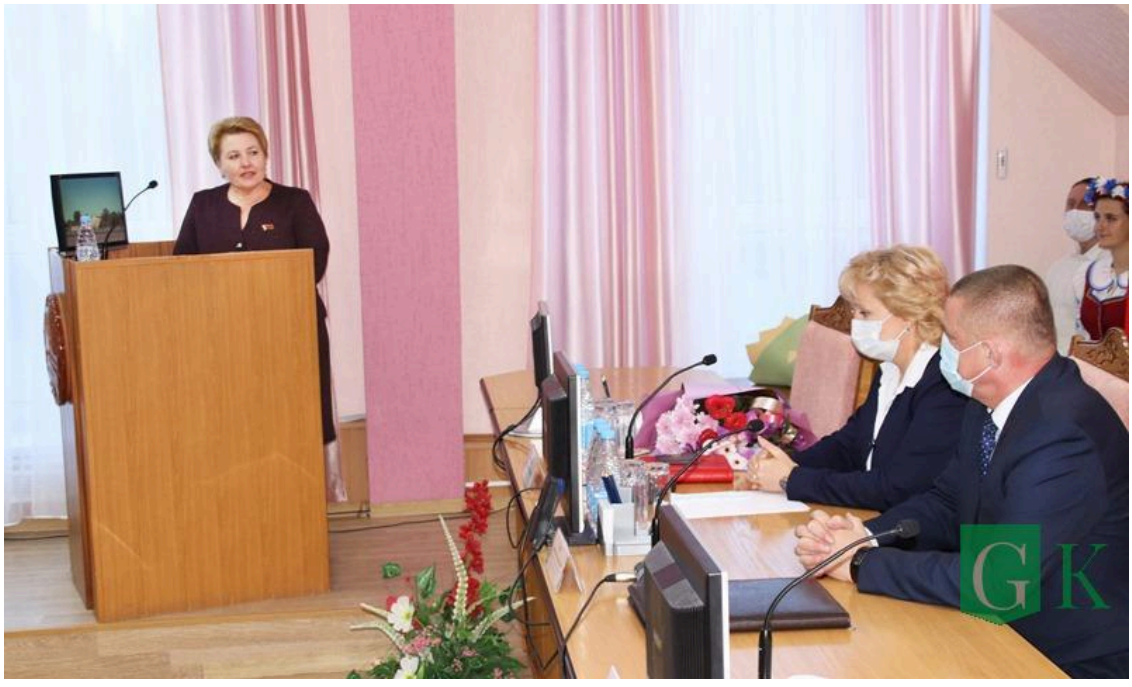
“Given the structure of the region, where the main sector of the economy is agriculture, the knowledge of a person who is well versed in these issues, has excellent production practice in agricultural enterprises, where the main message of innovation is to increase the economic efficiency of production,” outlined the tasks for the new manager and district asset Leonid Konstantinovich.

He also expressed the hope that fellow countrymen, represented by leaders and work collectives, will support Alexandra Nikolaevna’s endeavors.

Many kind words were said to A. N. Mikheenko from colleagues with whom she began her career in the Kostyukovichi district executive committee and for whom she became a mentor.



As noted in the speeches, A.N. Mikheenko has proven herself to be a competent, competent, energetic and business-like worker, a principled and proactive leader, capable of competently analyzing problem situations and organizing their solutions.



By open vote, deputies unanimously approved A. N. Mikheenko as chairman of the district executive committee. The head of the region solemnly presented the official certificate and congratulated him on taking office.

Thus, Alexandra Nikolaevna became the first woman chairman of the district executive committee.

In turn, the chairman thanked her for the trust placed in her.
