Ранее Владимир Рябоволов был заместителем начальника Оперативно-аналитическом центре (ОАЦ) при Лукашенко.

В прямые обязанности ОАЦ входит контроль за интернетом. Центр расположен в непосредственной близости от Администрации президента — в здании бывшей Национальной библиотеки на улице Кирова, и трудится в нем менее 100 человек.

ОАЦ — одна из самых закрытых структур в Беларуси, отмечает издание «Наша Ніва (http://nn.by/)». Например, в открытом доступе нет информации о биографии его начальника Сергея Шпегуна. Что касается Владимира Рябоволова, то он был «лицом» ОАЦ, именно он давал интервью, в том числе негосударственным СМИ, ездил на международные конференции, принимал участие в дискуссиях.

Владимир Рябоволов участвовал в 2013 году в конференции ОБСЕ в Вене вместе с редактором «Хартии-97» Натальей Радиной. Там Рабаволов заявил, что «государство имеет право решать, что делать людям в государственных учреждениях - на работе они должны
