As part of the meeting, as a sign of gratitude, memory and respect, a ceremony of laying flowers at the memorial plaque of Pyotr Mironovich Masherov, which is located on the building at 44 Partizanskaya Street, took place.

The visit continued at the Vileika Territorial Social Services Center, where a meeting of the district Council of Veterans was held.

- Today, one of the main tasks of any veterans' organization, from the primary to the republican, is not to let a veteran "lie down". This means that every veteran can and should take part in the events that we hold. And there are many of them. The nearest one is the Day of the Elderly. Concert programs, interesting meetings are organized. I am very pleased when veterans give useful suggestions that are then put into practice. I like it when veterans are engaged in creativity, draw, sing, write poetry and even books. And when they present the results of their work, I feel proud of them, - said Ivan Arkadyevich.

- The veterans' organization is made up of participants in the Great Patriotic War, military operations in Afghanistan, and also labor veterans. And the Vileika one is one of the leaders in the region. We are watching your activities and learning too, - noted Kazimir Bronislavovich, addressing the chairperson of the Vileika District Council of Veterans Anna Shepeleva. - And I don't like the expression "old people" - these are cheerful and active people whose job it is to guide young people, support them, and give practical advice. As we lead them, so they will follow us.
