https://integral.by/company/korporativnaya-zhizn/?special=Y

Firefox detected a potential security threat and did not continue to integral.by. If you visit this site, attackers could try to steal information like your passwords, emails, or credit card details.

What can you do about it?

Probably nothing, since it’s likely there’s a problem with the site itself.

You can continue with your default DNS resolver. However, a third-party might be able to see what websites you visit.
