The delegate of the All-Russian People's Assembly Valentina Dadaleva spoke to the students and teachers of the Murinbor school

From Olga Krivosheeva - 08.05.2024

On the eve of Victory Day, Valentina Dadaleva, a delegate of the seventh convocation of the All-Belarusian People's Assembly, spoke to the students and teachers of the Murinbor school.

Valentina Leonidovna spoke about the importance of such an event. The delegates had great responsibility in adopting the main laws of the state - the Concept of National Security and the Military Doctrine of the Republic of Belarus.

“The All-Belarusian People’s Assembly is a state authority in which the voice of every person is heard,” Valentina Leonidovna emphasized.

Valentina Dadaleva especially emphasized that our country has achieved a lot in recent years. And this is thanks to the fruitful work of people, as well as the competent leadership of the President.

Share:

Olga Krivosheeva

Leading Correspondent

There are no posts to display.